"Probably one of the best received performances I've had at the Columbia. Three (or was it four) encores, an ecstatic audience, the performance was exceptional on all fronts. If I'm sounding extraordinarily effusive, it is because this performance was well-deserved.

"We certainly enjoyed hosting the Voca People in Houston! The response of the audience was terrific!

"A talented group of singers to set about a breathless series a capella takes ...Actually, a capella doesn't begin to cover it - with tremendous beatboxing providing rhythm and momentum, it's actually an eight-piece band where all the instruments happen to be vocals"

Edinburgh evening news

"Spectacular singing and an upbeat comedic narrative make for a high-energy, uplifting theatrical experience... This is a slick, fast-paced show that propels you to a blood-pumping finish, roaring applause and standing ovation made clear the audience's pleasure in the experience"
